2004 WVIAC FOOTBALL PREVIEW

WVIAC head football coaches have placed the bullseye squarely on the back of two-time defending league champion West Virginia Wesleyan. The Bobcats are solid favorites to become the first conference squad to claim three consecutive crowns since Shepherd turned the trick from 1997 through 1999.

Wesleyan earned six of the nine first place votes cast by WVIAC head coaches. Shepherd received one nod for the top spot and was second in the voting. Glenville State placed third as the Pioneers grabbed the other two first place votes.

Fairmont State, WVU Tech, Concord, West Virginia State, and West Liberty State round out the voting. The University of Charleston will not be eligible for the league championship until the 2005 campaign.

West Virginia Wesleyan (9-2, 7-0) must replace nine first team All-WVIAC selections from a club that tore through the conference in 2003. The Bobcat attack should continue to be potent with the passing combination of Marc Kimes to Richard Shinnners. WVWC also welcomes back running back Jamaal Robinson from an injury that cost him much of last season.

DB Luke Wallace, who broke up 13 passes in 2003, is the top returning defender. The linebacking pair of Alan Krutulis and Zack Condo also provide a solid foundation for head coach Bill Struble's defense. Mike Petito is the lone returning starter in the front four.

The Bobcats must also overcome the burden of history. No Wesleyan squad has ever won three straight WVIAC titles. In addition, the conference's pre-season favorite has not copped the championship since Shepherd in 1999.

Shepherd (4-6, 4-3) looks to bounce back from a rare losing mark for Monte Cater's Rams. SU finished on the unhappy side of .500 last season for the first time since 1995.

Seven starters are back on each side of the ball for the Rams. RB Alex Herbert narrowly missed the 1000 mark in 2003. Sophomore Dan Chlebowski earned valuable experience under center and should benefit from a veteran offensive line that has three returning starters. WR Jesse Correll provides a big play threat for the SU passing game.

Shepherd should have a solid front seven on the defensive side of the ball. DE Andre Henderson, LB Demar Atwood, and LB Ron Frazier key the SC defense. CB Dustin Dudinski continues the Ram legacy of top kick returners.

New head coach Alan Fiddler inherits an amazing 20 returning starters as he makes his collegiate debut at Glenville State (5-6, 4-3). The Pioneers could boast one of the region's most explosive attacks with QB Joey Conrad and WR Antonio Carter.

Carter has been named as a pre-season All-American after snaring 81 passes for 1168 yards in 2003. Conrad merely established WVIAC total offense records for freshmen and sophomores during his first two seasons as a Pioneer. GSC has plenty of size up front with four offensive line starters back, including 6-9, 330 pound senior Chris Nunn. Sophomore WR Tavon McGee provides Conrad with another dangerous target.

A secondary that remains intact could be a strength for the Pioneer defense. Dennis Stanton, Lamont Howard, and Zack Hopkins form the core of an excellent defensive backfield. Dana Raban, Brian Hefner, and Gary Hefner are standouts among the front seven.

Fairmont State (4-6, 3-4) could move back into contention during head coach Rusty Elliott's third season. Wide receivers Khalid Dover and Josh Romeo are a formidable pair. Sophomore running backs Jo Jo Parker and Wendell Johnson showed great promise as rookies. Former Lewis County star Pat Morrison earned experience with several starts at quarterback during his freshman season in 2003.

FSU must replace four first team All-WVIAC picks on the defensive side of the ball. LB Matt Vance and DB Isaac Weaver look to maintain the Falcon tradition of stingy defense.

WVU Tech (3-8, 2-5) must replace WVIAC Defensive Player of the Year Jadae McGuire, but the Golden Bears look to be competitive in year two under Mauro Monz. Wide receivers Chris Lawson and Charles Radford (Baylor transfer) will be tough to defend.

DE Sevon McLemore, CB Antoine Anderson, and LB Mingo Brown will comprise the heart of the Golden Bear defense. Tech must replace eight starters on the stop troops.

Concord (3-8, 2-5) looks to make strides in head coach Greg Quick's second season in Athens. The Mountain Lions will build around a defense that welcomes back nine starters. Linebackers Gino Polastri, Robert Sabbatini, Daryl Wilson, and Ben Thornton form one of the top groups in the conference. Senior John Paul Blankenship moves from the offensive line to a starting slot on the defensive front.

RB Torrin Ruth averaged just under five yards per carry in 2003. Sophomore quarterbacks Derek Midkiff and Ron Busky each earned some playing time last season in their collegiate debuts. Wide receivers Daniel Fry and Julian Chandler will be solid targets for whoever takes the snaps for the Mountain Lions.

West Virginia State (3-8, 3-4) looks to snap the conference's longest string of consecutive non-winning seasons at eleven. Carl Lee's Yellow Jackets have some effective options on offense with QB Kerrick Cooper and RB/WR Dervon Wallace. Cooper, a four-year starter, is tough to stop through the air or on the ground.

Linebackers Adrien Choice and Ramel Shaw will lead the WVSU defense. The Jackets allowed 42 or more points on four occasions in 2003 and need to cut those numbers to move into contention.

West Liberty State (3-7, 3-4) closed last season with three straight victories. The Toppers should prove more than capable on offense. RB Derrick Stickles rushed for a school record 1492 yards in 2003. Quarterbacks Jay Gullion and Mike Clark are each experienced. RB/WR Bo White is a big play threat. Four linemen return, led by 6-4, 300 pound junior Nick Babal.

The hopes for Bob Eaton's crew hinge on improving a defense that gave up 36.5 points per game last season. LB Wyatt O'Neil was among the conference leaders with 89 tackles in 2003.

Head coach Mike Springston will need to keep a road map handy as Charleston (2-9) will play nine away games in their second season back on the gridiron. The Golden Eagles will play a largely independent schedule as they prepare for a full league slate in 2005.

High school teammates QB Cory Isner and WR Jeff McCoy provided fuel for the UC attack late last season. Runningbacks Chris Moore and Julian Lambert are a fine duo in the backfield.

Linebackers Chris Boggiano and Emmanuel Dartey form the heart of the Golden Eagle defense. The UC defenders will be tested by four Division I-AA foes.

Did You Know?

---Only two successful field goals were made during the 1959 grid season. Bluefield State's Jim Scott booted the season's longest three-pointer from a mere 12 yards out! Unbelievably, 1959 was the decade's busiest year for kickers. WVIAC booters only made six field goals during the entire decade in those days before the advent of soccerstyle kickers.

THE NORTHEAST REGION

The West Virginia Conference will compete within a restructured Northeast Region for the 2004 season. The NCAA realigned the regional structure this past year as part of increasing the Division II playoff field from 16 to 24 squads.

The newly configured Northeast Region contains the WVIAC, the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference, and the Northeast-10 Conference. Six playoff spots will be allotted from all four regions across the country (Northeast, South, Northwest, and Southwest) into the NCAA Division II Football championship.

2004 also will introduce "earned access" into the Division II football lexicon. Earned access assures any league with a team in the final regional top ten of a playoff spot. The highest ranked squad in a conference receives earned access regardless of conference standing.

Applying the new regional format to the 2003 field would have provided Bentley (MA), Edinboro (PA), Indiana (PA), C.W. Post (NY), West Chester (PA), and West Virginia Wesleyan playoff spots from the Northeast Region. The two top squads from each region will receive a first round bye. The WVIAC's last playoff squad was Shepherd during the 1999 campaign.

PRESIDENT'S & COMMISSIONER'S CUPS

The West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference annually awards the President's and Commissioner's Cups to recognize all-around athletic excellence among its member schools. West Virginia Wesleyan won seven sport championships to claim both awards for the 2002-03 academic year.

The President's Cup is awarded to the school that has the highest average score for sports sponsored within the WVIAC. Points are awarded based on finishes in the regular season of each sport. Scoring of WVIAC sports is a reflection of the number of teams participating for that championship.

The Commissioner's Cup is awarded to the institution with the highest cumulative score as determined by a scoring method used by the league. Points are awarded based on the school's finish after completion of each of the sports sponsored by the WVIAC.

Did You Know?

---The WVIAC was the only NCAA Division II league to place a team in the national football quarterfinals, the men's basketball Elite Eight, and the D-II Baseball World Series during the 1998-99 academic year.
 ---Three current Division I institutions are former league members. West Virginia and Marshall were charter members, while Morehead State was a member from 1929 to 1932. The Eagles were the only non-West Virginia school to be a league member. The Mountaineers departed in 1927 and the Thundering Herd exited in 1949.
 ---The fifteen member WVIAC is the largest collegiate conference to be located within the confines of one state.

WVIAC HISTORY

The West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference enters its 80th year as one of the premier small college athletic conferences in the country. The nationally respected and competitive league consists of 15 teams located throughout the Mountain State.

Affiliated with the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) for many years, the WVIAC has dropped the NAIA affiliation and is now affiliated with the National Collegiate Athletic Association's (NCAA) Division II. The WVIAC was organized through the cooperation of the State Department of Education in 1924.

Since then, WVIAC teams have enjoyed national success and rankings. Charter members of the conference include Broadus (and later Alderson, which merged to form Alderson-Broadus), Bethany, Concord, Davis & Elkins, Fairmont State, Glenville State, Marshall University, Morris Harvey (now the University of Charleston), New River State (now WVU-Tech), Potomac State, Salem (now Salem International), Shepherd, West Liberty State, West Virginia University, and West Virginia Wesleyan. Current members Bluefield State, West Virginia State, and Wheeling Jesuit have joined since then. Ohio Valley College of Vienna is the newest league member, joining the WVIAC in 1999.

Seven schools have left the conference since its formation. WVU departed in 1927 after just two years of membership. Marshall exited in 1949. Bethany and Potomac State withdrew during the 1950's. Beckley (Col. of West Virginia/Mountain State) left in 1977. Two current league members have withdrawn for a brief period. West Virginia Wesleyan left the WVIAC in 1986, but rejoined in 1988. West Virginia State took a one-year leave of the league in the 1994-95 school year to complete NCAA membership requirements.

The first WVIAC president was E.G. Rohrbaugh of Glenville State, who served for six months before being replaced by Joseph Rosier of Fairmont State. The current league president is Dr. Stephen Markwood of Alderson-Broadus College.

Beckley sportswriter George Springer was the Executive Secretary of the league for 19 years before being named the WVIAC's first Commissioner in 1966. He served an eight year stint in the post prior to his retirement in 1974.

Mike McLaughlin served as WVIAC Commissioner for 10 years prior to his death in 1984. The Weston, WV native had 30 years of football and basketball officiating experience before assuming the commissioner's role.

Mike Reed of Glenville, WV took over after McLaughlin's death. The former coach and athletic administrator held the post until 1987, when he resigned to pursue a career in private business.

Bramwell native and former Bluefield State athletic director Barry Blizzard is currently the WVIAC commissioner. He has served the league since November, 1987. Prior to assuming the league reins, Blizzard spent 11 years at BSC.

Currently, the WVIAC offers championships in 19 men's and women's sports. Women's golf became the league's newest sport in 2002. The conference offices are located in Princeton, WV.
